

REMARKS

Method and apparatus claims 103-146 are added so as to eliminate any ambiguity that the scope of their previously added claims (91-102) is limited to a high velocity air form of drying. In the situation of a mechanical limitation, reissue applicants are entitled to claim a genus with the disclosure of one operable embodiment falling therewithin. Utler v. Hiranga, 845 F.2d 993, 998, 6 USPQ2d 1709, 1714 (Fed. Cir. 1988). Claims 103-108, 114-118, 124, 126 and 138-140 also do not expressly require that the press be "continuous in-line", i.e., that it necessarily be capable of perfecting.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert Hardy Falk
